

CLINICAL TALKS

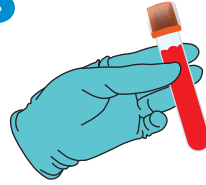

SEASON

4

"BIOLOGY WANTS TO BREAK FREE"

Date: August - December, 2020,
Thursdays, 9:00 am - 9:30 am

Venue:  ZOOM, virtual room

Host: Clinical Genomics, SciLifeLab, Stockholm

Audience: An open  educational seminar series

Purpose: Speakers features a mixture of experts with a clinical perspective on topics concerning Rare Diseases, Cancer, Microbiology and Bioinformatics

DATE / VENUE	SPEAKER	TOPIC	AREA OF EXPERTISE
Sep 17 	Nasim Bergman Farrokhnia Director of Quality and Research, KRY International AB	KRY Research and Development	E-Health
Oct 8 	Sopia Hober Professor, KTH	A KTH developed COVID-19 screening methodology	Serology / Antibody test
Oct 22 	Vicent Pelechano Associate Professor, KI	Gene expression profiling	Transcriptomics
Nov 5 	Lars Engstrand Professor, KI Director CTMR	Starting up a high-throughput COVID-19 lab in 4 weeks - what we learned?	Viral RNA testing
Nov 12 	Emma Lundberg Professor, KTH Director Cell Profiling Facility, SciLifeLab	Every cell is unique	Cell Profiling / The Human Cell Atlas
Nov 19 	Larry Mansouri Senior Researcher, KI	The genomic complexity of lymphocytic leukemia	Hematology
Dec 3 	Francesca Bignami VP Marketing, CartaNA AB	Decoding the brain Spatial transcriptomics	Business Development perspective
Dec 10 	Johan Rockberg Associate Professor, KTH	Gene Therapy, the big gamechanger	Gene therapy